Friday, March 2nd. 7pm.

The Idolatry of God: An Evening with Peter Rollins

Union Street Restaurant, Newton Centre
Meet at Union Street Restaurant in Newton Centre (107R Union St.), grab something to eat or drink, and join in the conversation.

This event is co-sponsored by: Andover Newton Theological School; The Pub Church; Boston University School of Theology; and First Baptist Church in Newton.

Also with Peter Rollins...

Sunday, March 4. 9:30am and 10:30am.
Peter Rollins will lead 9:30am discussion and speak during the 10:30am worship service at First Baptist Church in Newton Centre (fbcnewton.org; 848 Beacon St.)

Sundays, February 12 to March 11. 9:30am.
FBC Newton will host a discussion series each Sunday at 9:30am, sharing Peter’s videos and ideas. Facilitators include Rev. Sean Witty, Dr. Mark Heim (Andover Newton Theological School), Dr. Heather Palmer, and Dr. Peter Rollins.

“In contrast to the usual answers concerning what the Good News might be, Peter will present a radical and initially disturbing definition: you can’t be satisfied, life is difficult, and you don’t know the secret. Arguing that God has traditionally been thought of as a type of product that will make you whole, remove your suffering and give you the truth, he will contrast that with an approach to faith which invites us to embrace suffering, face up to our unknowing and fully accept the difficulties of existence.”

For more about theologian, writer, lecturer and storyteller Peter Rollins, visit www.peterrollins.net.

For more information about these events, contact: fbcnewton.org; amy@fbcnewton.org; 617.244.2997